

Sneak Peek

To succeed in your mission, you must have single-minded devotion to your goal. – A. P. J. Abdul Kalam

Independence Day

15th August 1947, was the day we were free from the British. Every year on this day we salute the valiant sons and daughters of mother India who believed that freedom is the birth right and not a privilege. This year, on this auspicious day, we were honoured to have Mr. Amnom, an Israeli entrepreneur as our Chief Guest. At the time of the flag hoisting and national anthem our hearts were filled with pride and respect for our motherland, our home, our India.

The program began with an introduction to our 13 presidents followed by the students reading out the wonderful letters written by the patriots. The speeches in Hindi, Marathi and English respectively took us back to the glorious past of India.

In the afternoon the skits and dances kept the spirit of the Independence Day alive. This auspicious day came to an end with the screening of the movie Lakshya.

– Riya Jain, Class 9

Amar Javan

19th July began with a surprising news from our teachers that we the classes 8th, 9th and 10th were going to attend a special program dedicated to our brave soldiers.

"I'll either come back after raising the Indian flag in victory or return wrapped in it, but I will come for sure."

Were the words of one such brave soldier who sacrificed his life for our nation. He is none other than Vikram Batra who died on July 7, 1999 when he was only 24 years-old.

We were honoured to meet Vikram Batra's parents who narrated the story of his struggle while he fought the Kargil War.

As I listened to them I realized that guarding tirelessly at freezing temperature needs real determination and courage. The interaction with the parents of Vikram Batra instilled a deep sense of patriotism in all of us.

– Vandan Bilala, Class 9

Our message to the brave Javans

Chithi na koi sandesh...

We as a school gathered at the lawn in front of Assembly hall, to participate in the POSTCARD CAMPAIGN on the 14th of August to honour our soldiers.

The thought of writing a letter to someone who is unknown, made me feel uneasy; but when I came to know that it would reach our soldiers who are guarding our nation, day and night tirelessly, I whole heartedly wrote down my thoughts to give them more courage and support to let them know that we the people of India have complete faith in their valour and dedication towards the nation.

– Naman Jain, Class 8

Trip to Manu Devi - Class 5

We woke up at 5 o'clock and had our breakfast by 6:30 a.m. and proceeded towards the gate. It took only an hour to reach our destination. We were captivated by the beauty of nature in the jungle. Then, we visited an ancient temple, the temple is surrounded by hillocks (small hills) on all three sides.

Having had our lunch we went to Unapdevi and saw a hot spring and enjoyed in a park. We had a lot of fun during our return journey to Anubhuti. The teachers who escorted us were Santosh Sir and Dr. Snehal.

– Sohan Nathwani and Sarthak Dhariwal, Class 5

Trip to Anandsagar - Class 6

We the students of class 6 were excited about our trip to Anandsagar. We started from our school at about 6am. On the way the tyre of our bus got punctured and it took about an hour to replace it. We started singing and dancing right from the gate of our school. On our way we halted for a while in front of the gigantic Lord Hanuman statue which is the third tallest statue in the world situated at Nandura in Buldhana district of Maharashtra. We had reached

Anandsagar at around noon. As soon as we reached Anandsagar we rushed out of the bus. Firstly, we visited an aquarium and enjoyed watching a variety of colourful fishes. We enjoyed playing on the swings, slipping down the slides and going on a toy train ride. After lunch we were taken to the meditation point which was across a hanging bridge. It was fun crossing the bridge and we named it as "Hilan – Dulan Bridge". At the meditation point we saw an idol of Swami Vivekanand and his Guru Ramakrishna Paramahansa. We meditated for 10 minutes in the hall. While coming down the hall, we clicked some photos with sculptures of wolves, peacocks and so on. On our way back we had snacks and enjoyed our trip to the fullest. We would like to thank our teachers Nalini Akka, Parashuram Sir and Jayashree Akka who accompanied us.

– Aryan Modi, Class 6

Trip to Patna Devi - Class 7

It was early in the morning, on the first of August alarms rang and we the students of class 7th were happy and excited to go for the trip to Patna Devi. All of us assembled at the dining hall along with our teachers and by eight we were in the bus filled with excitement and delight. The first place visited was the Devi temple itself. Then we went to Bhaskracharya Educational Hall where we had our lunch. Our guide then took us for a 14 km trek where we came across some caves. We felt very happy as it was a rare experience. On our way back we began to crack hilarious jokes and sang songs in the bus. It was an adventurous trip. Parvati Akka, Sachin Sir and Ram Sir were the teachers who accompanied us.

– Aditi Naredi, Class 7

Class 8 Trip

Lonar Lake, one of the world's largest Basaltic Crater Lake was our destination for the one day trip this year.

It was a long and a tiring journey and it took us almost five hours to reach the spot. Raghvan Sir, Surrender Sir, and Swati Akka were the teachers who accompanied us. On reaching there, we went down into the deep crater which had a lake. The crater was formed fifty-two thousand years ago, when a meteor crashed into the earth at an estimated speed of 90,000kmph, weighing 2 million tonnes. The Lonar Lake has a mean diameter of 1.2

kilometres (3,900 ft) and is about 137 metres (449 ft). It was a beautiful sight. We visited five temples of the 22 odd temples around the lake. After climbing up we had a delicious lunch and travelled back to school with enthusiasm.

– Awadhash Chandak, Class 8

Trip to Pal – Class 9

Pal was the destination of our trip on the 26th of July. We were very excited about the trip but on the contrary there was a feeling of regret because few of our friends did not join us, as they went for matches. Our escorts were Parmar sir, Swagat sir and Snehal akka. On the way to Pal, we danced and sang songs in the bus. After reaching there, we straight away went into the forest. We saw a habitat built up for the deer of various species. Two among the four species were special ones, one was a hybridized deer and another was a black buck, the fastest runner in India at the speed of 90 Km/h. While returning we enjoyed playing with water in a small river and everyone enjoyed that part the most.

Even the return journey was awesome. The day was really very joyful and memorable.

– Manvi Khatri and Nehal Bhayal, Class 9

Trip to Lonar - Class 10

A one day trip to Lonar provided us with an excellent opportunity to refresh ourselves after the pressure we faced during the first cycle test. The day of the scheduled trip was keenly awaited by the students of our class. On 25th July, a wave of energy dazzled among us. Everyone attired well, looked forward for a wonderful day ahead. The five hour journey to Lonar, however did not create boredom among the students because of our constant singing and playful activities in the bus. At around 12 noon we reached our destination to see "The Big Crater"-Lonar Sarovar.

The guide Mr. Rathod acquainted us with the importance of the Lonar Sarovar. We also learned about many species of birds, peacock, wild pig, porcupine living around the lake. The delicate carvings on the ancient temples which we visited were, similar to many other ancient temples in India. Sculptures in the temples within the crater depict the mythological stories about the formation of Lonar Lake. We also saw the Gomukh temple which is situated on the rim of the Lonar Crater Lake. In one of the Kunda (tank) in the temple, there is an eternal water stream.

This trip enriched our knowledge about Lonar and the opulence of wildlife and vegetation in the forests surrounding Lonar crater. It was truly a memorable trip for us.

– Shreyas Gedam, Class 10

Trip to Toranmaal - Class 11

"The Key to friendship is not in the hand you hold but how you hold the hand". We were so lucky to go on a trip to Toranmaal on the Friendship Day. We gathered near the pond and wished each other Happy Friendship Day, early in the morning. We also wished our dear Ashok Sir as it was his birthday. Swapna Akka, Harshil Sir and Ashok Sir were the teachers who accompanied us. The day started off well. On our way, we danced to the rocking tunes of Bollywood hit songs and sang at the top of our voices. This trip was a great opportunity to know more about our new classmates. After enjoying six long hours of our journey, we finally reached the heaven like place named Toranmaal. The beauty of Toranmaal was really admirable. The water was falling down from the mountain like peace showering from heaven. The lunch we had there was sumptuous. The best part of our trip was the splashing water on each other and slipping down into that stream. Finally, it was time to leave. We prepared ourselves for the return journey. The journey back was all the more enjoyable.

– Neha Agrawal, Class 11

Class 12th Trip

On 1st August, we the students of Class 12th went for a trip to Toranmal, a village on the Satpura mountains. The place is famous for lotus flowers. The journey through the forest was the best part of the trip. There were many popular points like Sita Point, Suicide Point and so on. We listened to songs and danced to the popular tunes and enjoyed watching the stunning beauty of the forest. We would like to thank our teachers Rini Akka and Kishor Sir who accompanied us.

– Sourabh Jirathi, Class 12

Ashadi Ekadashi Programme

On the occasion of Ashadi Ekadashi our school and other schools performed a music program at “Kantai Hall” in Jalgaon. The students who participated were-Aditi, Sanskruti, Vinit, Chinmay and Karan. All the students were dressed in white kurta and pyjama. We sang a group song titled “Naam Sankitarna”. Chinmay of Class 7 sang a solo song “Vithalacharya Sathire”. Other schools also sang songs and also performed dances.

It was a great experience as we sang with them and learned from them. Mr. Nikhil, our music teacher accompanied us.

– Aditi Naredi, Class 9

Seminar on advertisement

The world of creativity and entrepreneurship in the 21st century is defined as advertisements. Advertisement always fascinates us about the product and services. It's a key element of the organization which aims to change the perception of the customers.

On 22nd August 2015 Mr. Anand Malhara from Malhar Communications conducted a seminar on the importance of advertising agency and advertising as career. He provided deep insight into the world of advertisement. Our Business Studies teacher Mr. Swagat coordinated the program.

– Prasad Suryavanshi, Class 12

Skill Development through Communication Skills

On International Skill Development Day, the 21st of July, a renowned public speaker Dr. Rajendra Prasad Bhide ignited our minds on the topic of skill development through communication skills. He told us the importance of communication in our lives and how the “Small Things” in communication makes a big difference for instance – the punctuation marks. The talk was educative and enriching.

– Vijay Agrawal, Class 10

Tap Tap Tap...

The last day of first term was made memorable by the 'Sangitsabha' in the evening of 25th August. The programme was organized by the music departments of Anubhuti I and II. Anubhuti one music choir with Nikhil sir and the children of Anubhuti-2 also participated in this programme along with their teacher.

We, the youth of this decade, usually find new pop songs and Bollywood songs more interesting but the songs and bhajans sung that evening was an eye opener to us. We were surprised to know that the 'tals' and 'ragas' were supposed to be sung at a particular 'prahar'-a time of a day. Volunteers like Gopi sir, also sang well. The programme came to an end with a loud round of applause.

– Sumiran Dafare, Class 9

Bahinabai Chaudhari

Bahinabai Chaudhari was born on 24th of August 1880 in Khandesh District. Though Bahinabai did not have any formal education, she became an accomplished. She verbally composed her poems and her son Sopandev wrote them down on a paper.

She has written more than fifty poems in Marathi. On the 24th of August class 9th B visited her house to celebrate her 135th birth anniversary. We recited her poems, we also saw the Bahinabai museum where her antics were kept safely. We were glad that we went there and learnt more about the famous poet.

– Aniket Pattewar, Class 9

Future through a website

Proper guidance and counseling help us in choosing the right path in life. A brief introduction about career counseling site called Univariety was given by a volunteer from the group about colleges and career. He provided us with details and descriptions about the site and its salient features like personalized guidance and admission chances from universities around the world. He also found our inner capabilities and asked us what we aspire for. We were inspired by this interaction. Having been informed about the site, we explored the site during our mid-term break.

– Anshuma Lunkad and Amey Thakare, Class 12

English week

A week full of joy and enthusiasm which began with a jam session enabled the participants to achieve great level of confidence. The English week included special assemblies, events and activities like spell bee, recitation, speeches, caption making, debates and various skits which filled the air with entertainment and learning. The hard work and preparation of the students and teachers finally paid off. It brought out the ability and talent of the students. The event bestowed us with knowledge, confidence and determination to achieve something more in life.

Teachers' Day Celebrations

Teachers' Day Celebrations at Anubhuti School, Jalgaon exuberated the love and respect of the children for their teachers. The day started with the students of grade XI playing hosts, welcoming all of us to a decorated staffroom, from where we were escorted to the Assembly Hall. All the students cheered for us as we entered the Assembly Hall. The XI graders gifted a painting to the teachers which was made by Pushkar Yawalkar. All of us were presented with gifts and well thought out qualities of each teacher was read out while the children were excited to guess the name of the teacher about whom they spoke.

Although it was hot and humid, we looked forward to visit Vakod, the place from where the Jain Group took off its journey to success. Mr. Rajput, the farm manager took us around the picturesque farm intricately explaining each and every quality of the plants. A sumptuous lunch was arranged amidst the opening with a backdrop of teak and sal trees. After lunch, we started playing with the ball and then re-lived our childhood on swings. The male teachers freaked out playing cricket. Soon it was time to move back. We got fresh 'amlas' which we savoured as we walked back towards the Agricultural College. An in-charge from the college explained about the various Diploma courses which help the students to choose a career or indulge into entrepreneurial field.

The Teachers' Day grand finale was with a candle light dinner organized to perfection by our grade XI students. With a variety of mouth watering cuisine, it surely was a grand way to the day's end. This touched our hearts as it surely was a great effort on the part of our students to make our day special. We had a round of antakshari before we finally departed for the day with pleasing memories and music lingering in our ears.

– Neerja Pandit, Teacher

Onam

Onam, the harvest festival widely celebrated in Kerala brought in a festive atmosphere here at Anubhuti too! The ambience was set with the beautiful flower rangoli at the entrance of the dining hall and the tempting aroma which drew people to the hall. Teachers clad in their traditional costumes seemed to complete the picture.

I was helping the dadas at the dining hall all the while and thoroughly enjoying myself. We started serving after the whole school came together to celebrate Onam. The sumptuous lunch prepared comprising banana chips, papadum, various vegetable curries such as thoran, avial, sambhar, dal served along with a small quantity of ghee, rasam and the yummy payasam served on plantain leaves was savoured by everyone present. The best part was the fact that the lunch was prepared by Vijayraghvan Sir and Satish Sir whose culinary skills surprised everyone.

Editorial

First of all, we would like to thank our seniors for giving us the wonderful opportunity to be part of the editorial team.

The first month was really special for us as it was filled with various activities like one day trips, English week and many other interactions with guests. After this came the Independence Day which was celebrated with great fervor and enthusiasm.

This month gave us an opportunity to settle as team and to come together and coordinate various activities at different levels. Hope our endeavor is appreciated.
