

Founders Day

The most awaited programme of the year was held on the 13th and 14th of December. The first day was entirely allotted to the juniors and the second day, to the seniors.

The theme, 'A Day at Anubhüti' was presented in the form of skits and musical performances. To give a feel of the Anubhüti world to our dear parents, our juniors gave a glimpse of what goes on the entire day at school. Beginning the day with prayer and yoga and ending it with a few scenes from the dorms at night was the theme on which the juniors performed.

Toppers have their own unique personality

On the second day the evening was scheduled in a way that our programme began with the prize distribution ceremony in which the toppers of ICSE and ISC were recognized and rewarded. The theme for the seniors was 'The Indian States'. The culture and historical significance of various states were brought out through various performances. The fillers such as questions to the alumni and choir performances, made the programme much more gripping.

The audience was enthralled by the informative and entertaining programme put up by each group. A glimpse into each state through skits, songs and music left the audience spell bound. Parents watched the programme with great interest and appreciated the performances.

It was a wonderful opportunity to be a part of the 4th National Conference which was organized by Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir College of Management and Research in Nashik. The conference was held on 15th and 16th of this month. Our paper presentation was on Employees Moonlighting. I was a bit nervous while we presented our paper as I was the only junior participant. It was a great learning experience and it feels so proud to be a part of the team of the National Conference participants and specially on winning the third position.

A Peep into the life of the Physically Challenged

We, the Class 8 were very fortunate to visit Anandvan in Wardha on the 16th of January. We went around the Campus to see the physically challenged working efficiently. They were involved in printing, weaving, making greeting cards and creating wall painting efficiently. The most inspiring part was the interview with Mr. Vikas Amte, the son of Baba Amte who narrated his father's meaningful life.

Our next destination was Tadoba, the Tiger Reserve. We came to know that there were 60 tigers in all in the Reserve but then we could spot only two or three tigers. There were also many other interesting animals like wild dogs, spotted deer, Indian Gaur and different types of birds.

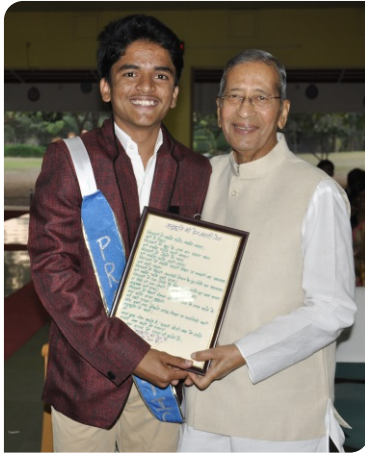

Hemal Kasa was our last destination. There we met Prakash Amte, the son of Baba Amte. We were inspired by his service to humanity. He is helping the tribal people live with dignity in the most remote part of Maharashtra. He runs a residential school, a hospital and even helps the wounded animals like snakes and owl. It was a touching experience.

Enthralling Experience at Bal Gandharv

We, the juniors attended a music concert at Bal Gandharv on 9th January. Being on time we didn't miss any of the performances. We enjoyed the heart touching tunes of the musical instruments played by famous musicians. We were not familiar with all the instruments and so this was an opportunity to learn about many new instruments. We enjoyed listening to music that evening.

An Unforgettable Farewell

A much awaited day, the 12th of January was the day for our Farewell and we the Class 12 and Class 10 were extremely excited about it. The day was filled with extreme zeal and excitement. The programme began at four in the evening and we all gathered at our holy Saraswati point. After having a memorable photo session with our beloved Dadaji, we were all ushered into the Assembly Hall by the students of Class 9. Music was played, flowers were showered and there was a lot of glamour as we entered the hall. The decoration of the Assembly Hall was marvelous!!

The programme began with the farewell for Class 12 by the students of Class 11. All the students were greeted with a gift as a token of love. The emotional speeches given by the students of Class 12 melted our hearts. The programme proceeded with the farewell of Class 10 by the Class 9 students. Every student shared and expressed their love to the school. There was a lot of thanks giving to the teachers and friends for being a great support. Our memories were refreshed by a video presented by the students of Class 9. Tears rolled down from the eyes of some students. Overall, it was an emotional evening filled with lots of fun, which we will cherish for years to come. We never wanted the programme to end however all good things have to come to an end. We were then led to the dining hall for a delicious candle light dinner by our friends. Thus, the much awaited evening came to an end and we returned to the hostels and as we walked back we wondered whether we will be able to leave ANUBHUTI??"

A man's favourite donkey falls into a deep precipice; he can't pull it out no matter how hard he tries. He therefore decides to bury it alive. Soil is poured onto the donkey from above. The donkey feels the load, shakes it off, and steps on it. More soil is poured. It shakes it off and steps up. The more the load was poured the higher it rose. By noon the donkey was grazing in green pastures. After much shaking off {of problems} and stepping up {learning from them}, one will graze in green pastures.

How many times have you told yourself that you are going to improve your life, but end doing nothing? How many times have you been dissatisfied with some aspects of your life and vowed to change them, but did not follow through with your decision? It is the lack of enthusiasm, desire, determination, willpower and discipline which is holding you back. Making resolutions is not enough; you need to follow a plan, keep up your enthusiasm, desire and motivation, and not give in, when facing difficulties and obstacles. It might take some time and effort to improve your life, but this is worthwhile and a rewarding goal.

We give these lines to our seniors who are preparing for the board examination and looking forward to aspire high in life. As the pressure of exams bows them down, we see them, getting stronger and stronger. Dear seniors we wish you all the best for the board examination.
